Announcement from the Harrisburg Chapter of the Association of Environmental & Engineering Geologists

March Meeting - 2010

Thursday, March 11, 2010

6:30PM

PRESENTER: Ms. Lauri Lebo, Author of The Devil in Dover:
An Insider's Story of Dogma v. Darwin in Small-Town America

TOPIC: DENYING DARWIN: A DISCUSSION OF FAITH, SCIENCE AND DECEPTION IN AMERICA

For this combined meeting of AEG and HAGS, Dover area resident and reporter, Lauri Lebo, will be speaking on the landmark 2005 Kitzmiller vs. Dover School Board Intelligent Design trial. She witnessed first-hand the reactions of the community and the underlying issues behind the first constitutional test of Intelligent Design "theory." She will explore the history and future of religiously motivated attacks on evolution theory and science education. She will also discuss how this issue has become locally and nationally divisive, and on her observations of the apparent dishonesty of the anti-evolution movement.
