

GEOLOGICAL TECHNICIAN

Successful, privately held oil and gas exploration and production company is seeking a talented geological technician.

Location

- Dallas/Fort Worth Texas Area.
- Relocation assistance available.

Compensation Package:

- Above Market Compensation and bonus potential.
- Excellent benefits package.

Responsibilities

- Maintain well and geologic databases and projects using Petra software to import and export data. Create maps and cross-sections for presentations.
- Prepare and distribute copies of well logs, maps and cross-sections for distribution of field/prospect information to partners.
- Shared responsibilities for software downloads/updates and installations within the department.
- Assist geologist in field studies and development of unexplored areas.
- Construction and maintenance of mapping and geologic databases for exploration and new projects.
- Liaison for the transfer of specific information to groups and individuals both internal and external.
- Gather information in support of development and exploration.
- Broad base of technical skills working in a fast paced, goal driven environment.
- Able to meet deadlines, create and share ideas through effective communication.
- Perform research.

Requirements

- 5+ years experience as a geo tech in an oil and gas operating company.
- SMT and Petra software experience preferred.
- Basic knowledge of various data formats. Knowledge of geologic systems and well log terminology and analysis.
- Strong organizational skills.

To Apply:

- Qualified candidates should immediately email a resume to:
J Mar & Associates
(972) 732-8301
(800) 864-9043
Email: resumes@jmarassociates.com
Upload a resume at: www.jmarassociates.com